TOP 10 RESEASONS TO CONSIDER BEING ELECTED TO THE UOITFA

Hello Everyone, it is that time of year again. The weather is warming, the grass is greening, the students are cramming, and it is ELECTION time. Before you skip to the next article, think about the advantages of being involved in your FA. For a nomination form, see the last page of this publication.

TOP TEN REASON'S TO BE ELECTED TO THE UOITFA EXECUTIVE

10. Many of the positions do not really require a lot of time on the Member's part. In other words, you get a lot of value, for a little effort.

9. Members get a level of understanding of this institution that you would not normally get. This can help you negotiate this system in a variety of ways.

8. Representation from every faculty is absolutely necessary for an organization to be a good representation of its membership. We do not want to leave any Faculty unrepresented. All Faculties need to have their voice heard.

7. Faculty representatives can count their efforts towards service

6. Occasionally, there are cookies involved.

5. Senior executive members (President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer) may get teaching time off next contract, depending on negotiations.

4. You sometimes get to travel, depending on the office you hold, and not on your own dime.

3. You do not have to wear matching university T-shirts, or "Hello my name is..." name tags, for these events.

2. You can meet new people at this ever growing institution.

And the #1 reason for becoming a representative of the UOITFA:

1. Helping others is good karma, mojo, medicine, soma, pays it forward, etc.

Consider adding your time to the UOITFA. Below are a list of positions and brief description of their duties:

Faculty Representative. As an FA Rep, you are asked to attend all General Faculty Meetings, for the members of your faculty who are unable to attend because of teaching conflicts, etc. Reps act as a liaison between their Faculty and the FA, listening to the Membership to understand their concerns and to bring the unique issues facing their Faculty Members to the FA. There is one representative for each Faculty here at UOIT.

President: This is the most senior Executive position within the UOITFA. The UOITFA President's duties are many and varied, but essentially act in a leadership role for the organization. The President attends various OCUFA and CAUT meetings and works with the UOITFA Executive to make decisions regarding the FA activities, including representation, bargaining, and so on.
